DEVOTION - You Raise Me Up submitted by Sarah Dawdy

A powerful song of faith "You Raise Me Up" sung by Josh Groban has brought me through many difficult times in my life! No matter what life throws at us, we can still be secure that we have a Sovereign God lifting us up. Our happiness is not based on what happens to us but on what and who we believe in and what we choose to do. If you build a strong relationship with your Savior, these are promises from Him to raise you up.

- Give you supernatural power and strength when the circumstances are beyond your own ability.
- Provide you with a real sense of His presence in times of trouble.
- Show you that He has a bigger purpose for you and your life than whatever you are going through.

- Brings good out of even the worst things that can occur.
- Protects even when bad things happen to you.
- Fills you with His love and peace in the midst of trouble.
- Guides you to the answers you need for whatever you are going through.
- Intervenes, and changes the situation, and provides for you.
- Opens new doors as old ones close. There are always new tomorrows with God!
- The things that will matter to you will be eternal, like His love, and the love of your spiritual community, family, and friends.

"I have learned how to be content with whatever I have." Philippians 4:11
