DEVOTION - Be Strong and Courageous and Do It!

submitted by Sarah Dawdy

Have you ever felt like you were in over your head? At work you got the promotion you'd been hoping for, only to feel a little wobbly on your feet the first few weeks as you learned the ropes. At home with a new baby in the throes of diapers and doubts in college when you realize that you actually DO need to read the books and study to get an A. If you waited until the perfect time, you'd never actually make a move. If you waited until you were fully ready to make the next life decision, you'd probably still be waiting.

I've heard it said before that God doesn't just call the equipped; He equips the called. There are people living their dreams today because they bravely left their comfort zones and trusted God's amazing plan for their lives. There will come times in our lives when it's worth the risk to take the leap to go prayerfully and confidently and boldly knowing that God is ultimately the One in control. Why not take the next step toward something you're "not quite ready" for today?
