

TLC CONNECT

WELCOME TO THE LOG CHURCH - AUG. 27TH

Joy in the Future Phil. 3:12-4:1

Join us this Sunday as we explore how our relationships effect the future we will have and the level of joy we experience. Paul once again will show us the benefits we can have when we are connecting in Biblical relationships and warns us of the dire consequences when we neglect these relationships.

Elder, Bob Merrill, will be giving the Offertory prayer this week at the 9:00 AM service. Deacon, Laurie Prem, at the 2nd service.

DEVOTION - The True Worshipers - Chapter 2

submitted by: Karen Kettleson

"... But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; ... God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." - John 4:23-24 NKJV

These words to the woman at the well in Samaria are Jesus' first recorded teaching on the subject of prayer because prayer is worship. And this Scripture gives us a wonderful first glimpse into the world of prayer. The Father seeks worshippers; our worship satisfies His loving heart and is a joy to Him. He seeks true worshippers but finds few. True worship must be in spirit and truth.

... However, we are carnal, and our flesh cannot bring God the worship that He seeks. But Jesus came to give us the Holy Spirit. Let the attitude we bring to prayer be what Christ taught us; a deep confession of our inability to bring God the worship that is pleasing to Him and a childlike teachableness that waits on Him to instruct us in the simple faith that yields itself to the breathing of the Holy Spirit.

This is the new and living way Christ opened up for us (Hebrews 10:20). Having Christ the Son, and the Holy Spirit dwelling within us and revealing the Father to us makes us true spiritual worshippers of God our Father.

From the book titled With Christ in the School of Prayer, by Andrew Murray.
