What do you think of all those lists in the Old Testament? Do you think you can learn anything from them? Join us this Sunday as we dig up some of the golden nuggets hidden in a list.

A child lost in our lives is a pain none of us wants to live through. Is it even possible to smile again? There is a place that God can give you comfort. Smile Again Ministries is that place. Please call 320-310-8877 to start that journey with Tristan & Jill Borland.

This Sunday, there will be a table in the Gathering Place with information on Smile Again Ministries as well as serving opportunities.

Devotion - Choose Charity Over Challenge

submitted by: Sarah Dawdy

It's easy to stay positive and upbeat when people see eye to eye and agree with each other.

However, negativity can be LOUD and praise quiet when opinions differ. People are drawing lines to divide the world, and it can be so easy to have a "comment war" with someone you barely even know to persuade them to see things your way. Choose peace and positivity instead. Let them see God in you and how you treat people. You've never met someone that God didn't die for. He loves all of us even when we are unlovable. Through every comment, through every post, through every personal interaction, choose to be positive examples of a believer. The Bible says the world will know Christians because of the way they love. It's so easy to get caught up in the trap of judgment, making decisions about who is worthy and who isn't, and all this does is divide us. Our Savior just calls to love one another. He will sort all of us out in His timing.

Colossians 3:15. "Let the peace of God rule in your hearts always." Amen.
