Devotion - Honoring Our Parents (Part 2) submitted by: Tim & Laurie Prem

"Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you" (Exodus 20:12).

Honor your father and mother, specifically, means to "prize highly, care for, show respect for, and obey" their authority in our lives. In a world riddled with broken marriages and pieced together families, it's important to embrace God's command to honor each other. Many of us are fathers and mothers, either by blood or adoption. If we are caring for someone, or they us, we are to honor them.

"And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord." (Ephesians 6:4)

There are many earthly fathers and mothers who were amazing, loving, caring parents who reflected well the loving nature of our Heavenly Father. There are also plenty of people who ended up as parents who should have left parenting to others!

Some of us had overly strict fathers who in their zeal to make us into strong and upright people may have lacked a loving approach. We may then tend to believe that our Heavenly Father is also overly strict and not loving. But God has always loved us and always will!

If your parents behaved in hurtful ways, do you still have to show them honor? The Bible says yes. But how can you do that? Forgive them, pray for them. Easier said than done, but still what our Lord has asked us to do.

Thank you to the generous people who donate to the Crosslake Food Shelf. Your donations are very much appreciated by many. The volunteers at the Food Shelf have been very busy serving regular clients as well as new families. Thanks be to God!
