Devotion: Be Careful of Your Approach submitted by: Savannah Gammon

Be careful of your approach. I'm going to repeat that, be careful of your approach. Whether it's God or people, your jobs or entertainment, how you view things including yourself. Be careful of your approach. As God's children, knowing HIS Spirit is in us should racially change your thoughts, how you live and your perspective. We are to clothe ourselves with kindness, love, truth, trustworthiness, hope, compassion. "Since God chose you to be His holy people, you must clothe yourselves with tender heartedness, mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Make allowance for each other's faults and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. "Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. Let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts.

For as members of one body, you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful." (Colossians 3:12-15). This is the Spirit in you, it's the Spirit working in you. Be careful of your approach. Whether you are talking or listening, if you are angry, standoffish or hard, you are not letting God's Spirit in. But in your anger, always pray. "Never stop praying." (1 Thessalonians 5:17). But in your prayers, remember that not only are you connecting and engaging with your Father in Heaven; Christ the Savior; but also the Holy Spirit! "For the scriptures say, "You must be holy because I am holy." (1 Peter 1:16). So be mindful and careful about yourself so you don't fall into sin. God defeats Satan. Satan can't overcome you. Remember Jesus's own temptations. In your approach, remember to love. "This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you."
